Dear Student:

Again this year we have included a listing and a description of several DCGA and independent organizations. In so doing, we are trying to make all students aware of the many different ways you can be involved at Denison. The range of activities is extensive and all that is needed is your enthusiastic participation.

Contact one of the leaders of group you're interested in and discover what is happening. Many opportunities await your discovery. No matter how large or small your time commitment, involve yourself.

Sincerely,

Hunter Nickell, President
